Philosophy

Framed by views of the Salish Sea and Coastal Mountains, Ocean7 Restaurant and AQUA Bistro & Wine Bar sit on the shores of Vancouver Island, where the setting shapes the way they serve. Their aim is simple: a table that feels welcoming and unhurried. The wine list is curated by Food & Beverage Manager and Certified Sommelier Dawn Schultz, working with Executive Chef Danai Hongwanishkul and Bar Manager Julie Ferris.

Together they shape a program that draws on the island's coastal character and influences from around the world.

A Certified Sommelier through the International Sommeliers Guild and a French Wine Scholar, Dawn brings extensive expertise and a passion for education. Recognized with the 2024 Terry Threlfall Scholarship from the Vancouver International Wine Festival for her leadership, mentorship, and industry contributions, she brings knowledge and vision to our evolving program.

The list features British Columbia producers alongside international selections, chosen to suit the seasonal menus. It has been created to be approachable for guests new to wine, while offering depth and distinction for those with more exacting tastes. Vintages are left off the printed list on purpose, so guests can talk with the team and receive recommendations suited to their preferences.

At the bar, an extensive collection of spirits is complemented by cocktails made with house-made infusions and local botanicals, designed to sit alongside the menu as comfortably as the wine does.

Both restaurants are open every day of the year and guests are encouraged to take their time, try something unfamiliar, and enjoy the stories behind what is on the table and in the glass.
